Data Exchange Solutions using ISO 15926 Adaptive Information Model

Manoj Dharwadkar, PhD., Director of Technology Management
Bentley Systems Inc.

Semantic Days 2008, Stavanger, Norway

Outline

- Bentley Overview
- Data interoperability strategy based on ISO 15926
- Bentley's implementation of ISO 15926
- The role of Bentley Class Editor and Adaptive Information Model

Bentley's Mission

Help improve the world's infrastructure

Serving Distributed Enterprises

The business of infrastructure entails distributed enterprises

A Strong Global Company

- 24 years of growth and stability
- 2,500+ employees, 80 offices, 40 countries

Distinctions

1. A comprehensive software portfolio that is multi-discipline and integrated, just like your projects
2. Collaboration servers that allow distributed enterprises to successfully deliver infrastructure projects
3. A commitment to interoperability to maximize the return on your investments in data

POSC Caesar IDS and FIATECH ADI are accelerating ISO 15926

- Collaboration between both projects

- IDS (Intelligent Data Sets)

- Reference data expansion and Methodologies
- Online reference data hosting, browsing, and editing
- Simple implementation approaches
- Training

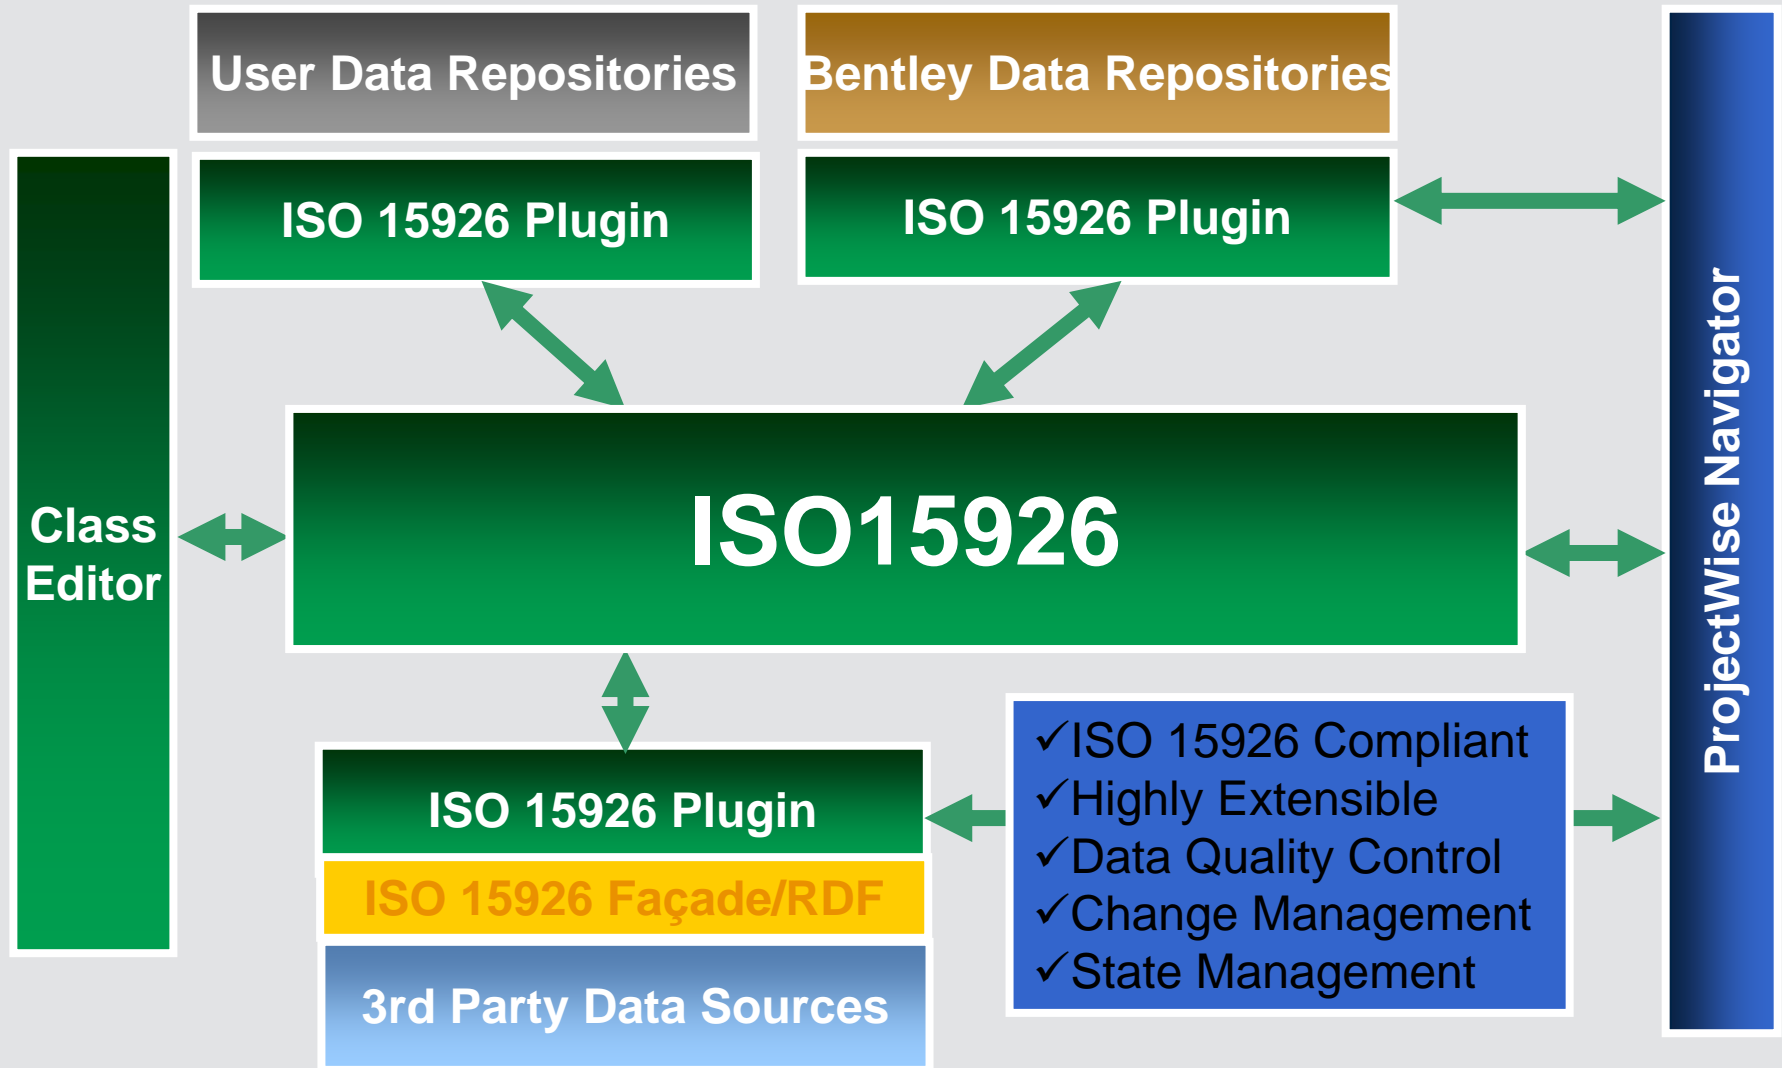

- ADI (Accelerating Deployment of ISO 15926)

- Focus on implementation and tools
- Reference Data System (RDS) software and utilities
- Training

- Bentley is very active in both projects

Structural Analysis

Piping Analysis

What this means for the user?

20-30% reduction in engineering man-hours
Reduced cost of structural steelwork

Better, safer plants

ISO 15926 WIP: Organization

The role of the Bentley Class Editor

Data Interoperability Using ISO 15926

Bentley Class Editor with RDS Support

- ISO 15926 dictionaries
- Engineering Friendly View of Reference Data
- Information model building
- Simplified mapping interface
- Differencing
- Extensible
